Kossuth's Great Speech

AT THE

BIRMINGHAM BANQUET.

[CONCLUDED]

He felt he could not be contradicted when he said it would be the interest of the people of this country to afford it (the right) all the aid its energies might be capable of rendering it. He (Kossuth) did not say that the United States ought to enter into a crusade against Austria—that would be a step which he (Kossuth) did not believe the present circumstances of the world would warrant—but he would say that the people of the United States ought to exert their influence with their government to induce it to adopt a course which would be in accordance with the principles of international law, and which would be the true key to the preservation of peace. Whether the people of the United States succeeded or not, he (Kossuth) could not believe would be without effect. It was the Emperor Napoleon's misfortune that he never had any epithet applied to him that was not deserved. He was a man who was far above the common standard in ability, and little he cared for the opinion of the world. Their sentences had little influence over his conduct. He (Kossuth) was not a violent revolutionist. He had fought (God knows with what reluctance he had taken up the sword) for three centuries for the constitutional liberties of his country, and when he had failed, they (the Austrians) had the audacity to call him a rebel. Though the Austrians had conquered, they had not succeeded in establishing their authority. They had failed in their object of crushing the Hungarian people. They had still one man in arms, and he would fight with no half measures. He would say that the Hungarian struggle was a Polish struggle—a struggle for the independence of Poland. Hungary and Poland were natural allies against Austria and Russia, which were the two great powers of despotism in Europe. Hungary had been the first to raise the standard of resistance against the Muscovite power, and Hungary would be the last to lay down her arms. He (Kossuth) would not be a party to any compromise which would not secure the independence of Poland. He would ask the people of England to consider what would be the position of this country if Russia and their numerous allies were to succeed in their object of dismembering and destroying Turkey. If Turkey were destroyed, Russia would have the means of controlling the commerce of the Mediterranean, which would be the ruin of the commerce of England. Hungary was the natural ally of Turkey, and he

PACIFIC.

New York, Dec. 8.

The steamer Europa from Liverpool arrived at 9 A. M. with 47 passengers and advices 1 day later than that by the Arabia.

Among the passengers are Hon. C. M. Clay and Lady, American Minister to France, and Mr. Winthrop, Bearer of despatches from England.

FROM HANOVER.

By the new ministry under the Presidency, Mr. Schele, has been formed, and promises an entirely new course every day. The new King of Hanover has established a new Parliament and pledged to the maintenance and observance of the Constitution of the country.

The press at Hanover enjoys great satisfaction. He is called George the Last.

The state of Hanover is a political point to view, is most unique. The system of expulsion is still carried out at Vienna on a grand scale.

Spain.

Despatches of the U. S. and to Cuban invasion, which excites much discussion in the public journals.

Two vessels of war had arrived at Cadiz with another portion of the Lopez Expedition on board.

RAISING IT A PLACE.—Since day was the hottest day of grace by the taxpayers, captured up without the addition of one per cent. There was a perfect jam at the office of the Receiver of Taxes. From 10 to 2 A. M. to 3 o'clock P. M. Harvey Hart and his clerks were busy in certain individual as said to be in a perfect whirl, and during that time they received more taxpayers the enormous sum of $230,000. The previous day, over $800, 000 was received. All day remaining unpaid until after the last day of November, no increase one per cent. Of course, tax payers put off the payment of their taxes until the last day previous to the addition.—N. Y. Times, Dec. 1.

CLIMATE OF CALIFORNIA.—Be it remembered, that on the 27th day of October, 1850, in the city of Sacramento, the mercury, on the shady side of J street, marked 93 degrees, at 2 P. M.—Sacramento Union, Oct. 29.

CHANCELLOR LATHROP'S ADDRESS.—At the favor of Rufus King & Co (Milwaukee Sentinel) we acknowledge the receipt of Chancellor Lathrop's Address before the State Agricultural Society of Wisconsin—the neatest specimen of printing perhaps ever done in the State.

The address, it will be remembered, was delivered at Janesville, Oct. 21, 1851, and is a credit to the State, as well as to the author, and the Society before whom it was made.—Grant Co. Herald.

NO DELEGATION.—The telegraph informs us that the Georgia Legislature has rejected by a vote of 92 to 26 the proposition to call on the people to select delegates to the Democratic National Convention to be held at Baltimore.

THE UNITED STATES.—John Warren Esq Marshal of the city of Detroit, yesterday handed us a letter from a gentleman living at McVeytown, Ohio, in which the writer states that he had seen a paragraph in the Ohio State Journal, copied from the Detroit Advertiser, giving an account of a body found upon the Central cars, and from the description of the person of the corpse, he is confident that it is that of his uncle, a late resident of Knox Co. Ohio, a wealthy and respectable farmer, who has been missing since Oct. 1st, and has been traced to this city, but without any indication of him have been had. We are informed by Mr. Marshall Warren that the general description of the person and clothes, as well as certain marks and scars upon the face and body of the deceased, strengthen the belief that the unknown corpse is that of the Ohio farmer, who was doubtless murdered.—Detroit Advertiser.

ARREST FOR FRAUD.—Parker Warren, of Sheboygan Falls, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Sheboygan County, was arrested a few days ago, for fraud, and committed to Oconomowoc jail in default of $1,000 bail. Mr. Monroe, of Rockfield, brought to Waukesha and accommodated with lodgings in the County Jail.—Free Dem.

☞ A new steamer is about to be constructed to run between Green Bay and Kaukauna, by N GOODELL, Engineer of the steamer Indiana, which was lost last Fall near Bridgeport.

PECK & BAKER,

140 East Water Street,

MILWAUKEE WISCONSIN.

FEELING encouraged by the liberal patronage extended to us during the past six years, and appreciating the want in Wisconsin of an EXCLUSIVE

DRY GOODS HOUSE,

where every article of DRY GOODS can be obtained, we have made arrangements for enlarging our business.

Possessing facilities for purchasing in the EASTERN MARKETS, that but few Western Jobbers have, and devoting ourselves

Exclusively to the Dry Goods Business, we flatter ourselves that, with the long experience we have had in this State, we shall be enabled to exhibit to purchasers a larger and better than has ever been brought to Wisconsin.

Stock of Dry Goods

We PLEDGE ourselves to those merchants who feel disposed to favor us by a call, that we will sell our Goods as low as the same styles can be bought in New York—adding transportation. We have now in store—

TAPSCOTT & CO'S
General Emigration and Foreign Exchange
AGENCY.

NEW-YORK: W. & J. T. Tapscott & Co., [illegible] STREET.
LIVERPOOL: W. Tapscott & Co., [illegible]

ARRANGEMENTS FOR 1851.

As the season of emigration approaches, we beg leave to call the attention of the public to our Agency, which we have established in Liverpool since 1845, and now inform it that the arrangements we have effected with the most respectable owners of passenger ships enable us to offer unusual facilities to those wishing to send for their friends. Persons remitting us the passage money can be assured that they will be forwarded with the greatest possible dispatch, and without the trouble of changing ships at Liverpool.

Since the commencement of last year a large number of passengers, who have been added to the above list, and to whom we refer by permission to the Agents, and some of the principal Merchants in the place, have availed themselves of our arrangements, and expressed themselves perfectly satisfied with the manner in which they were conducted.

By the following list of Packets, and their rates of sailing, it will be seen that we have the choice of three lines for those leaving in the months of April and May, and two lines for those leaving in June, July and August. Those who prefer the Liverpool Packets can have the option of sailing from Liverpool or New Orleans, Baltimore, Boston, Philadelphia, and New York, direct.

☞ A weekly Line of Packets for New Orleans.

Drafts and Bills of Exchange.

Drafts can at all times be obtained at our Office, for large or small amounts, to all the principal places in Ireland, payable on sight, or any months, from 21 days after date, without discount or any other charge; also Drafts at sight, without discount or charge, on Messrs. W. & J. T. Tapscott & Co., Liverpool, and on Messrs. Jones, Quiggin, Smith & Co., Bankers, London, payable through the London and Westminster Bank.
